We Know We've Friends Do Love Us.

1 When life with many a care is fraught,
And rest from toil is vainly sought,
O how consoling is the thought,
We know we've Friends to love us.

2 Tho' falling tears may dim the sight,
And shadows oft obscure the light,
O! does it not the heart delight
To know We've Friends to love us.

3 When sickness bows the weakened frame
And every nerve is torn with pain,
Ah! that true love will never wane
Of Friends we know do love us

4 When you the bright morn with peace is crowned
And nothing to molest is found
How lightly doth the spirit bound
For We have Friends to love us.

5 When we of crosses have our share

Which seemeth all that we can bear
O! does it not the loss repair,
To know We've Friends to love us,

6 Companion dear this is our lot,
True loving Friends we know we've got,
Which through all trials fail us not,
Thank God We've Friends to love us

7 O! when my Sister let us toil
From crosses never to recoil
But every snare of nature foil,
For we have Friends to love us,

8 True happiness is all we crave
For this all dangers let us brave
And boldly stem life's troubles wave
For We have Friends to love us

9 'Tis vain do I for language seek
The feeling of my soul to speak
Words are but shadows vain and weak,

⑩ Sister dear I love you

10 With you forever I will go

Through joy and sorrow weal and woe
Your company doth comfort grow,
⑪ pure affection crown us.

11 And when we meet in realms above

Where all is harmony and love

⑫ Together in that Land we'll rove.

Where all is love around us

⑬ Be so kind as to receive this in sweetest love, From your affectionate sister
