Remarks.

One of a large company of Soccids. Forty three years a Believer. A conscientious upright brother. Seven years old when she came into the Society Nurse and Deaconess for many years at Lowell and Deaf, but bore a burden all the same for years.

Character. She came when quite young with sister - now our dear Mother in Israel - Elders then being among Shakers and made desperate efforts escape them they fled to Hancock and remained Family. As they went, so they returned, afoot and was then more unfrequented than snow, winding to trace. They lost track of it and became confused. Both assisted thro' this means in being finally led the form of an aged man bearing a staff in his hand "I am the Ancient of Days, follow me." They confidence in him that he would lead them afterwards molested. Sister Marcia lived at the N. H. Was a weaver by trade. Afterwards went to the S. H. all her life. Was a nurse and a doctor as well. Harvard. Without flinching at the cross it brought was first sister in the Office and remained there until x
