

before hundreds and thousands of people, then I will prepare for thee an exceeding great reward in the Heavens. I will, when thy work on earth is done, crown thee with my never-ending-brightness and glory, and enrobe thee in fine raiment, white as snow, glowing with the beauty of the rainbow, and pictured with flowers of shining gold. I will also place a beautiful large Pearl upon thee, and will write thereon — These words.

{ A faithful servant unto my Name,
Saith Eternal and True Wisdom.
One in whom I am well pleased,
Saith the Holy One of Israel.
Crowned to be a prince unto my name,
In the Holy Temple of Jerusalem.

There thou shalt dwell, my beloved, and enjoy every blessing that thy soul can desire, thro' the endless ages of eternity; and to thy joy, thy Heaven and happiness, there never shall be an end,

Saith Thy Holy Heavenly Mother.
