

A Card of love and notice from blessed Mother Ann, to Mary Hazard. January 25th 1843.

I am Mother Ann Lee, one with your blessed Lord and Savior.
I am love, blessing, peace and purity. A Parent who watcheth with delight every true child of her name. Yea, a Mother who watcheth in sorrow deep for her lovely offspring on earth. None do I forget, and none do I forsake; but unto each one do I call aloud and say, come & come dear children, gather beneath my protecting wings; then fear ye not, for I will safely guide you. Come and I will lead you on thro' dark and dismal scenes of deep sorrow, thro' low vallies of tribulation sore, and thro' trials severe. Come follow me upon the path that I your Mother dear have paced for you in sorrow, grief and pain. Then I will lead you to mansions of eternal peace, where your weary souls shall find rest; there you shall receive blessings forever new, and rejoice with the holy angels, shouting eternal praises and thanksgiving with us your holy Parents, Jesus Christ and Mother Ann, forever evermore. Amen.
