

A Beautiful Present

From Eldress Ruth she gave me a Rose with a Gold chain and a Watch, attached to it; also her love and blessing. March 8th 1851.

A Present from brother Luther Copley.

A little Diamond set in a square stone  $\frac{1}{2}$ an inch square for all the brethren & sisters in the North Room, which he placed in our right hands, he said he had a little partial love for his room mates. April 10th 1851.

A Present from Father James

It was a little white Dove, with Mother Ann's name on its wings, a little gold key with a song on it; Father said if I should ever get out of union any way I could take this key and unlock the door and no one could keep me out. He gave a little Trunk to me, it was filled with treasures he had
