

Mount Lebanon, Feb 23rd 1873.

My true & faithful sister Mary Hazard.

Sister to a few words from your friend Sarah Chyn Lewis

You are one of the Burden-bearing companions, with whom I dwell for many years; & one whom rests the first burdens in the line of temporalities.

Your life is recorded in the Spirit World; your honest integrity, your consecration of time & talents, with all that your might possess, freely given to God & His people, helps form the Golden Girdling on the Record of your good works. I see the Firmament of Heaven glowing with effulgent brightness, over spread with the names of the Children of Mother, that truly devote their lives to God, & keep the Golden Rule, "to do unto others, as they would have others should do unto them."

To deal impartially, with-out favour
