

Garners, & Stores be filled with good things, & that your kernels may be staid up, & your surviving companions may as freely support you, in your daily exertions to do right as you did me, in so doing they will draw down a blessing upon themselves, & no good thing will be with-held. I Bles you in your Lot, I love all my dear Companions; & if I have left any tracks or way marks that will be any help to you, I shall be thankful. I believe you was ever true to me, & true to the cause you have enlisted in; & I look upon you worthy of the place you are entrusted with. It was my incessant labour to deal justly in regard to the joint property & be true to every trust in all things & to enjoy the confidence, & love of the people, which is a great source of comfort to me, & I desire to still be held in your kind embraces, till we meet in that better Land. written by Eleanor P.
