This song was sent to Sarah Bates with a little Pollen-va Trumpet. It was written and noted on the trumpet. Also the following words: "sound, sound ye your trumpet aloud, and call my Oh, le, se, le, vo, to enter, and with you to join, in Se la le, vina praises & songs divine. "Mother says this little song was sung to her by the little Angel. Vinse, for her to sing to call her first chosen together.

She says it was hard for her to sing such a song; & Father William went & got her a little trumpet.

Mother wanted you to know that this pretty trumpet, has never been used by any one but her, since Father W^r received it from the Angel Vinsc. And now she says, "I give give it to you, & if you will keep it choice, it shall ever be yours. It was thro' these little trumpets that the holy Angels of God have sounded & spoken the word of God, from the very first that God had a chosen people upon earth. It was thro' these trumpets that the prophets of the Lord received their word to speak to the people, and thro' these were taught their duty. Yea and by the sounding of the Angel Vinsc's trumpet the people have been called forth against their enemies, & in obedience to this sound they have ever gained the victory. Mother says she is none concerned about her little trumpet she knows in whose hands she has placed it."

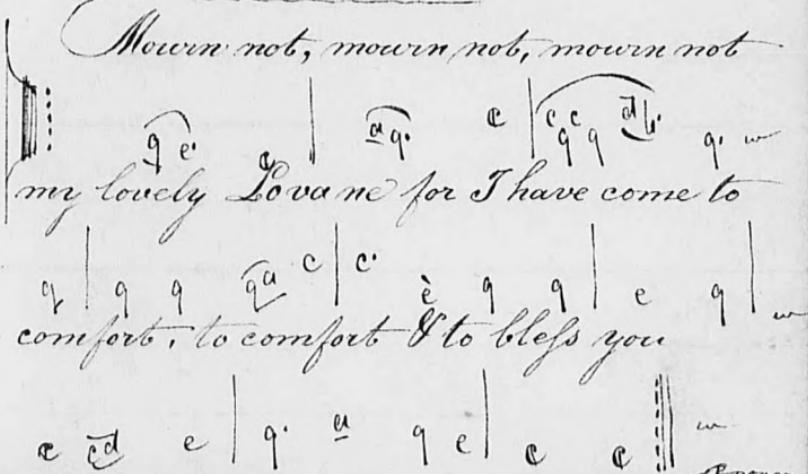

It is easy to sound, And with my never ceasing love & blessing, I give it to you to reward you for being so willing to sound & sing the many hard songs that have been sent to you.

The trumpet was bro't by Elder Sister Olive from the holy City. November 20th & given to Sarah B. by The trumpet was handed to November 21st from which she had the song.

The above was spoken from Mother Ann by November 22nd 1839. c.

This anthem was received from Fr. William with the following words. "Remember dear children this is from the two anointed ones, that hold the keys of the kingdom of Heaven, that set the example of unbounded charity & tender kindness, when they were upon earth, to the poor of this world."

And says Father see that ye never forget to imitate their example. For in those acts of kindness ye draw nigh unto them and ye shall in no wise loose your Reward.

Trumpet of Joy.

Why are ye mournful my faith ful child. Arise arise and sound your trumpet of joy with me.

Mother Ann says "Lydia my faithful child, your song is short but very sweet & why are ye mournful? mourn not, for you may ever know that you are my faithful child. Yea & I will give unto you my everlasting love & blessing, to remain with you thro' time & in Eternity. And I also give unto you a gold crown, & placed thereon 5550 stars as a reward for your faithful labors, & the burden you have borne for many years past, in the upbuilding of Zion.

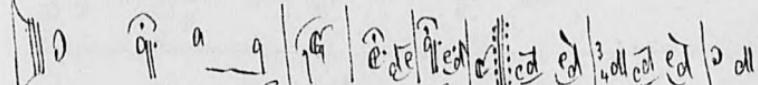

Yea you have been a true & faithful pillar in the house of Israel. Now these are my own words which I myself speak unto you. When your days on earth are ended you shall come & dwell with me in my pretty little mansion, for you are a true & worthy heir of Christ's Kingdom.

Solemn Trumpet

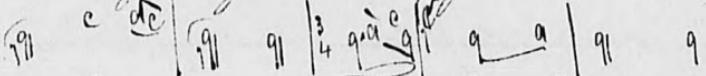

Ho, ho, ho, ho, ho, lo, lo, lo. Tre o. Tre see, Tre war. Sound ye the solemn trumpet of Tod, all ye Angels. Sound ye the trumpet, of. Laz e re wo. For lo the Savior the savior of souls has again returned with Angels in heaven to dwell. But lo, he must again upon the earth appear.

& by his side shall stand the holy Lin se ne wa. They shall s-o-u-n-d the Trumpet of salvation thro' out the Land

Oho. hoh. hoh.

This Anthem was given to E. Ruth, by Mother Ann on a trumpet. Mother says this trumpet was sounded when Jesus Christ entered the world of spirits after his crucifixion & it has never been sounded since; but has been kept solemn & sacred by Jesus Christ & the holy Angels, till the present time: & I received it from them. & now says Mother I give it to my holy anointed upon earth. I will give it to those who stand in the place after them, & they shall sound it thro the Land thro' out all generations. And says Mother "Ye shall sound & sound & sound this solemn trumpet thro this place,

Mother says this is a gold trumpet, 14 inches long & it is winding & winds three times around.

Dec 8th. — The Anthem is one that Mother Ann sang to Father James, when he was sick at Enfield. Mother Ann says "O my true child be of good cheer for truly I love & I bless you and will ever remain a true parent & friend to thee, my worthy child. For thou hast never forgotten my words, nor forsaken my laws. Therefore receive from my boundless store, rich pearls & bright gems as thine own earnings. The march following the Anthem, was sung & marched when Father James left this world & march'd home to Mothers mansion. It is his own song but Mother call'd it her journey march. Father James says. "O. Eunice! long have I been begging & wishing that Mother would send you this song or give me leave to, for surely I love you from a grateful heart. & when you receive this song, know ye, it is interlined with my never ceasing love & blessing to you, for your steadfast faithfulness in my blessed Mother's gospel. From Mother Ann to Eunice

Words of Wisdom to Seth

Come come saith Wisdom, thou faithful servant of God & listen to my voice, for my unbounded love & blessing flows unceasing unto you, thou most worthy among the faithful that follow Christ & Mother in the regeneration. Thro' the fear of the Lord thou hast obtained true wisdom. For altho' great knowledge & worldly honor was placed before thee, yet all ye all thou hast freely forsaken, to follow thy lo. ren sen save, and ever hast walked my lovely path of truth & virtue with cheerfulness and pleasure. Now hear ye this my word thou noble child of true knowledge & virtue For more precious yea of greater worth is that knowledge which thou hast obtained (thy wisdom, and Godly fear) than all the wealth honor and power that mighty men possess. All the learned men, that have entered the world of spirits, & obeyed this my gospel, bow with reverence and respect to you for the wise and Godly use you have made of your better learning & knowledge; for above all the latter learned men, whose honor & fame have spread thro' the land, thou hast excelled in true wisdom, Therefore have I raised my voice at this time to sound forth thy excellency upon earth, that others might hear & wisely consider.

Yea says Mother Ann true are the words from the voice of Wisdom, and I have sent many learned men, to behold the simplicity and Godly fear, which thou hast obtained & bade them take example thereby; for I would that all men were pure & holy as thou art. Yea I have a pure and undefiled mansion prepared for you. And know ye, all that are in hearing of these my words, that I have sealed these words from the mouth of ^{Wise} Wisdom, & have sent them to a true child of mine. -- From Mother Ann to This song was sent to Hannah Ann T. from Mother Lucy, by Lucy Clark. Lucy said she wanted this song given to Hannah Ann for the kind feelings she showed towards her, and the good care she had taken of her in her hours of sickness & distress. "Nay never 57 never, shall I forget your kindness to me.

And I have brought cake & wine from your parents in heaven above? and there is enough for you & me to freely feast upon" And I have also brought a gold two edged sword" This I will place round your waist, with a gold chain and a watch, the first time you sing this song.

Mother Lucy says you are her good soldier, yea, and her good child, & her love & blessing she wants given to you. And my grateful love, blessing & thanks, dear sister do receive, for it never, will cease to flow to you. \hearts

This song was sent from Mother Ann, by her Brother Daniel Lee. These are Mother Ann's own words, & Daniel's tune. The solemn song following the Anthem, is Elder John Hocknells, & the following are his words, " tho' I am your natural Father, yet I am your strength; and will help you thro' deep tribulations. So be ye encouraged."

remembering that your sacrificing your native country, wealth, honor, and all that was dear to you is for an abiding treasure in the world to come. The foregoing song, was learned at Mothers Ch. Meeting Dec. 15th 1839.

It is a song that Father William, sung to Father Joseph after he was left by the first Elders, under deep tribulation, in the care of the people. Father Joseph said, this song was. & has ever been, a comforting song to me, but Father William says, I must now part with it, for he has placed it on a gold heart of pure love, & sent it to Br. Frederick Sizer. This freely I will do. & wish him to tell Br. John Allen that I will place on his neck my little trumpet. And every time he will sound it, & sing this march, he may receive my love by the handfuls.

January 12th 1840. Mother Ann went round and viewed all her children. This was made known to an inspired one, on Monday 13th to whom this song was sung & thro' whom Mother had a message to the Elders, of which the following contains the substance. "This is my fervant prayer for all my children, both far and near. When I went round among them and saw the danger they were in and knowing what they had received for two years past, & seeing what use some have made of the gifts bestowed upon them. I prayed to my Heavenly Father for them. For my gifts must be received & treated in the fear of God. And I sent E. S. Olive to sing this song, for I wanted it learned here but I want all my children to have it. Learned By This song was sent from Mother Lucy by E.S. Olive to Elizaette Bates, on a trumpet which Mother Lucy gave to E.S. Olive after she entered the world of spirits. The song is Mother Lucy's Elder. Sister Olive placed it on the trumpet when she gave it to Elizaette. From Father William to Brother Theophilus Siddle, Bro't and sung by his little Angel Vi kālo. Dear Child says Father, ever remember from the moment you receive these words, that you are not forgotten by your heavenly Parents, neither forsaken by the holy Angels. Nay never never! say your blessed Mother shall you my willing and obedient child be left to suffer hunger: but from the richest feasts and purest fountain shall ever be fed. Other says Father be cheerful in your duty & know ye where ever you go, where ever you dwell, my blessing you shall have, & in my love fare ye well. Learned by to Washington Cabin to attend meeting with the three brethren who were left to stay over the sabbath While they were singing Christ was there & pour'd his blessing on the brethren & spoke these words. "Here in this place will I verify what I spoke when upon earth. When two or three are gathered together in my name, there will I be in the midst of them and bless them. Learned Feb. 1st 1840, Sing praises, praises, holy praises to God, and the Holy Van va so of heaven and rejoice with exceeding great joy rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, that the Saviour you have found, that the savior you have found, while here on the earth

Go ye on cheerfully, for I love you, yea

I do. & a royal diadem I have is stow for you if you will continue faithful and true. O love pure love & a blessing too. I've brought to my lovely, lineage guardian angel dear, I will bear you safe to the Holy Van da la ma.

The foregoing song. Mother Ann. says the Holy Angel of the Lord sung to her after she had confessed her sins to God before his witnesses. For then said Mother I found the true Savior of all souls. And on this my lovely ring. I send to you this little song as a token of my unfeigned love and thanks for your true faithfulness in keeping the gospel in its purity - Worthy Child of mine! Yea by the hand of your ever blessed Mother Lucy who watches over you with pleasing delight. I have sent this lovely jewel of heaven to you my little son. Yea says Mother Lucy with pleasure do I watch over you and behold the fervency of spirit & devotedness that you feel to bless & honor God by improving in the many very many gifts and songs sent to my lovely children here below. In as much as ye have loved and noticed all these precious gifts, so will your Heavenly Father remember you thou comforting Child to me. Receive O receive ye my love and blessing and go on your way rejoicing & sounding triumphant victory.

Mother's March

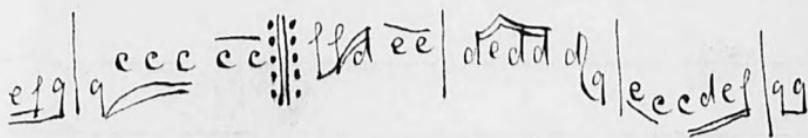

Now we'll march on our way

Ho ho ho ho ho ho we are marching home now we'll rejoice and sing

This march was sung to Mother Lucy when she entered the world of spirits. Mother says "I was taken by Father William in a bright shining silver chariot drawn by 4 horses of a light grey (or what might be call'd) a pale blue color with gold lines. I was also accompanied by Mother Ann and Father James. When we came to the valley of Sevenc (as Mother call'd it) she took me out of the chariot, with her & sung this song to me. And I am going to sing it to my beloved Ministry when they come home to Lebanon: For I feel anxious for their return here, I love my beloved Ministry very much & I shall sing and march this song home with them. accompanied with my first Church in the spiritual world as Mother Ann sang & marched it with me. I want it learned here in the first

Ohh. on earth I sung to the Ministry when they return. And I want they should know that I sung and marched it home with them. The dance Mother Lucy says is her own song. Learned by

Lucy Clark's Exultation

Heaven of heavens! The blessings of heaven are free. Heaven of heavens!
Tis heaven of heavens to me.

Sung by Lucy C. in our sabbath afternoon meeting, when all attended that had died within 20 years. She walked around Sister Betsey B. with her hands raised and sang this song in the most sublime raptures of joy for her privilege to attend meeting with her dear companions.

The foregoing song was sung to Sarah Knight by a little Angel. Saraveen, which was given to her, when she was in this world. After Mother Lucy left her, she sent this little Angel to sing this song to Sarah to comfort her. And Mother says she now sends this same Angel to sing this song to Lucy Gates, and wants her to receive it with her everlasting love and blessing, which she shall ever have if she continues in well doing. Mother Lucy sent a gold chain by Anna Coggswell, to Phoebe Smith as a reward, for her freedom & Simplicity in meeting and said there is 300. links in this chain and they are composed of faith & good works. in one of these links is placed an anthem which Phoebe may have as a reward of well doing!

together

And with the shining hosts of holy Angels

Father forever & ever and ever more,

This song was sung to Dr. John Meacham Feby. 29th 1840. by an Angel of the Lord. that guarded the three Brethren that went to the west. January 1st. 1805.

(viz John Meacham, Issachar Bates & Benjamin S. Youngs.)

Mother Ann. says this holy Angel has been the guardian protector of those who loved & feared the Lord. in many times of extreme danger. Of Daniel the prophet, when in the Lion's den. of the three that were cast into the fiery furnaces of Moses, the chosen vi vation when on mount Sinai and many more. And you my beloved (speaking of the three, above mentioned) this holy Angel has never left. Now Mother says B^t John... receive ye this song which I have sent by the holy Angel, and let it suffice to comfort thee thro' life. Father W^m says with my blessed Mother Ann I have repeatedly sent by this Holy Angel the richest of my love & blessing to comfort and support you my truly beloved.

The foregoing song E.S. Olive placed in view of the learner. it was written in good letters from which it was learn'd.

The following is from Mother Lucy to Sarah Smith. Know ye not my dear child, that I still am your Mother and with delight I can pour my love and blessing freely upon thee, for thou art a true and worthy child of mine. You have truly borne the cross and you shall surely have your reward. E.S. Olive says this song was sung to Saloma Chauncy & Electa B. when they entered the world of spirits. Learned by
