

CAT. NO. 9760

Mount Lebanon, N.Y.

Mar. 22, 1909.

To Otto and Rosalie

Whereas, under the conditions of the Probationery Covenant, voluntarily signed by you, no claims can be held against the Family or Society, yet, in consideration of the disappointment experienced by you and the condition in which you are placed, we make you a present of three hundred dollars, ($300.) and ask you quietly to withdraw from the society within ten days from date.

Please to consider the matter and give a reply by three o'clock this afternoon.

CAT. NO. 9760A

Mount Lebanon, N.Y.

Mar. 22, 1909.

To Otto and Rosalie

Whereas, under the conditions of the Probationary Covenant, voluntarily signed by you, no claim can be held against the Family or Society, yet, in consideration of the disappointed <sup>ment</sup> experienced by you and the condition in which you are placed, we make you a present of three hundred dollars ($300.) and ask you quietly to withdraw from the Society within ten days from date.

Please to consider the matter and give a reply by three o'clock this afternoon.