My dear Carissa
Thank you
for the basket
which has just arrived and is very dainty and pretty. I am very much indebted to you &

I ought to be very sorry I troubled
you with it -
But I like it
so much that my regret don't spoil it much!

With thanks
of the best wishes
for the coming

I am afraid this gave you a great deal of trouble. I did not expect nearly as large a basket. This of course would not
"travel" well by mail.
