

Windsor, April 6, 1892.

Dear Sir:

I will cheerfully say something in behalf of your excellent Society; but really I cannot help thinking you lose a host of the army since you encounter by abolition of your duties as citizens. Voluntarily is a duty which next not to be turned over by the week and industrious to the turbulent and prodigal. How can you refuse to vote when the slave law becomes an issue at the polls? Yours,

Herbert Evelyn,

F. W. Evans,

Christian Friends, etc.

Translation

Dear sir

I will cheerfully say something in behalf of your excellent Society But really I cannot help thinking you are out of the way, and you encounter by ^{abstention} ~~abstention~~ of your duties as citizens Voting is a duty, which ~~ought~~ not to be thrown ^{open} ~~open~~ by ~~wealthy~~ and industrious to the turbulent
and prodigal. How can you refuse to vote ^{when} the main law ^{becomes} ~~is~~ an issue at the polls

Yours

Horace Greeley

J. W. Cross

Christian Friends of Liberty

525. 10th St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Horace Greely Letter
New York April 6. 1852

Dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 2nd inst. in relation to the proposed publication of a new edition of the "Practical Treatise on the Diseases of the Eye" by J. C. W. Reynolds, M.D. &c. &c. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the printer and will be ready for the press in a few days. I have also the honor to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the printer and will be ready for the press in a few days. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the printer and will be ready for the press in a few days.

Yours very truly
J. C. W. Reynolds