

Office of
John E. Page,

462 & 464 Broadway.

Albany, Feb. 23rd 1877

Miss White,

I desire to thank you for the apples and Tomatoes sent to Mr.
Page's mother on West Broadway They came just as I who had been sick some days was wishing for some apples so you see they were very welcome.

Here let me thank all those of you who have so often remembered us from your granaries of plenty, which I trust may always be full

Mr Page and his mother send love to all I am with great respect
Yours very truly John E. Page
