From Mother Lucy to the Ministry

A Roll, from Mother Lucy, to the beloved Ministry, with her never ending love.

February 2^d. 1842.

O thou most blessed and Anointed Seed in Zion^{on} Earth; thou most Holy Ones, who dwell in the Valley of Wisdom.

And ye who are called to be the Seed to guide and protect, to lead and direct my Little chosen Flock here below. And ye, whose delight it is to walk in the lowly paths of peace. And whose delight and pleasure it is to know and do the will of all your Heavenly Parents that dwell in the heavens above.

Yea, says Mother, you have spared no pains nor labour of body nor soul, to help my poor and needy children; and teach them the way of salvation from sin, and how they may gain Life Eternal and be beautiful and heavenly in the house of God.
And I, your loving Mother, Suey can bear witness to the truth of this my word.

Yea, I say again great has been your tribulation and deep sorrow of soul praying to your Heavenly Father for my needy children on Earth. That the young and rising generation might ^{gain} an abiding substance in their souls, and lay a sure foundation steadfast and strong, which cannot be shaken; to guide & protect them thro Life. And be a strength to them thro all tryings scenes which they — will have to meet with ^{while} on their journey this time. And often has your prayers ascended to the Throne of God for the young and rising generation that they might make a good and wise use of what precious gifts and blessings has been bestowed upon them.

And of all, that has been intrusted to their care; and that they might walk in the low Valley of humiliation and true repentance, where they can find the blessing.

And I your blessed Mother, have often, yea, very often knelt and poured forth my prayers to my Almighty God with you, my beloved and Chosen Ones. Yea, as real as I did when I was in the body with you. But O my dearly beloved, my feelings I cannot express to you, thro mortal being (on earth) the feelings of my soul; but this one thing I say to you my dearly beloved Ones: Often have I mou--ned and wept with you, and now I will also rejoice! yea, rejoice a little with you at this time, thou blessed and holy One of my heavenly Father.

Yea... says Mother, I will, ^{rejoice} with you in the increase that has been gained by my true and faithful Children here below in Zion on Earth. For they have gained and increased in Order in harmony and love, and also in keeping the fear of God; for which I feel exceeding thankful and ever shall. And it is my most fervent and earnest prayer to my Almighty God; to my,

Eternal Holy Mother, in Mansions above, That they would bestow upon my needy children power and Wisdom, that they might keep what they have gained in this blessed day, this great and last manifestation of Gods mercy and loving kindness to his poor and needy children in Zion on Earth.

And may they increase more and more in Order, in beauty, in the blessed way of Mother Ann; and be more & more given up, more faithful to obey the precious counsel of their blessed Parents in Heaven. Also more faithful to obey the kind instruction of you, their precious and Anointed Lead in Zion, here below.

Who they must look to, for protection and salvation; for this is the Order of God, and the gospel. Yea, and obey you in all things, and be a comfort and a strength to you.

Oh Staff whereon you can lean and find peace and rest, in the decline of your lives.

Yea, again says beloved Mother Lucy, I would that the remaining part of your days on earth, that you would, ^{take} more comfort and satisfaction than you have;

and that you may behold Zion growing and increasing in perfect Order and beauty, as a beautiful spreading branch in the Paradise of God. Also increasing in Wisdom strength and pure love. And may you always, hereafter find my beloved children walking in the lowly paths—of self-denial, ^{& the} cross, keeping the holy fear of God in all they do, in all they say.

Bowing low in spirit to their Eternal Parents, to their Holy Maker and their ever blessed and faithful Mother Ann. And keeping every order that has been giving for their protection and salvation.

Likewise craving your prayers, your love and blessing to strengthen and help them along thro all trying scenes. And in this way they will walk safe, they will find the protection of God, and find His blessing and love. I will bless them says, Mother, I will delight to dwell with them, I will feed them with heavenly gifts from my Holy Heavenly Fathers Kingdom.
I will clothe them with my never failing love and blessing, and they will be the delight of the Lord their Saviour, and their ever blessed and faithful Mother Ann.

They will also be a comfort to me, their Mother Lucy; Yea, if my beloved chil-dren are true and faithful to walk in the lowly path, that is marked out by the Almighty God of Heaven, they will be beautiful yea and heavenly in the sight of their Eternal Parents, and all the heavenly Host above. They will be the glory of the whole Earth, a shining Light to all Nations who will come and seek their favour and who will flock to them for the way of Life and salvation from all sin. Yea, says Mother, the Nations of the Earth, will behold my children walking in perfect Order and beauty, in such harmony and love, they will see and know that they are the children of the Most High God. The true and faithful crossbearers of Christ their Saviour; the only true followers of the Lamb.

Those whose hearts are washed and made clean by true repentance, self-denial and the cross, and in whose mouth is found no guile, and whose hands are not stained with sin and trans-gression. For they have cleansed and purified themselves from all sin, & have washed their garments white through deep tribulation and sorrow of soul, And are now a traveling home to their blessed Lord and Saviour.

To bright and holy mansions of peace and rest, which their Heavenly Father has prepared for them; and thier to receive the Crown they have won.

Now says Mother Lucy, my beloved and Anointed Ones, come and rejoice a little at this time, with your loving Mother; for I will rejoice with you in love, for my love to you is great indeed, and it will never never fail. My love and blessing I will pour upon you most freely, my beloved and most holy Ones.

For it is my delight and pleasure to be with you and converse with you, tho not face to face as I have often done while I was on the earth with you.

But yet says Mother Lucy, it is a great comfort and satisfaction to me to converse with you as I now do, tho' mortal beings, by the Mighty power of God; but this will not always be so, for Lo! the time draweth near to a close when I must say the heart ending word to you all. Farewell O farewell: no more to my dear children here below, such pretty and heavenly things shall I tell, as I have done, but instead, farewell! O my dear children fare ye well.

Now says Mother Lucy, my beloved ones, with these few and simple words from me, receive a double portion of my never ending, and never failing love, which is exceeding great to you all, and which I cannot express to you at this time, but which I should be glad to have you receive.

And if you my beloved fulfil union with my little gift, which is this. I should like to have you give my love, year, my very best love and with blessing, once a year to my true and faithful children for me, when I am called home, to my heavenly home in mansions of joy; no more to come and see you as I now do, and bring you heavenly gifts from my heavenly Father Kingdom.

But yet I shall not forsake you in no wise; for the spirit of Mother will always be with you.

My beloved and Anointed Lead in Zion on Earth, so long as you live.

So I bid you farewell for this time in pure love, from your loving Mother Lucy.

Again says Mother, my Beloved Lies I have brought with me from the Eternal Heavens above a large store of pure love. Yea the very best kind of love and blessing from my Eternal Parents, For they said to me, my beloved, take a double portion of our love and blessing to our Holy & Anointed Lead who dwell in the Valley of Wisdom.

And again says your blessed Lord and Saviour, and your ever faithful Mother Ann, take a large portion of our best love, tell them from us, that our love will never fail nor be withheld from them so long as they tread this Mortal Shore.

And thus my word is finished for this time; thou blessed of my Heavenly Father and Eternal Holy Mother,
So the beloved Ministry.

Wisdom's Valley.
