

The words of the saviour and my word is to watch I say watch watch for the hour cometh that ye see not for I say unto all come a guests but not as I have but I shall come to do the will of my Father. And some will live to see it and some will not; and some will part by the way and some will not and
my little ones gather together whilst ye have Mothers first Born Children on Earth and from them ye must gather charity meekness and love to words each one another then ye will all gain the Blessing of your Mother...

Be watchful and prayerful by day
And a crown ye shall
Wear with Mothers
partly Children
Heavenly Kingdom
Breath the cross

Be watchful and prayerful by day
And a crown ye shall
Wear with Mothers
partly Children
Heavenly Kingdom
Breath the cross

My little ones gather together whilst ye have Mothers first Born Children on Earth and from them ye must gather charity meekness and love to words: each ye must gather then you will all gain the Blessing of

The words of the saviour and my word is to watch I say watch watch for the hour cometh that ye see not for I say unto all come a gain but not as I have but I shall come to do the will of my Father.

My little ones gather together whilst ye have Mothers first Born Children on Earth and from them ye must gather charity meekness and love to words: each ye must gather then you will all gain the Blessing of

The words of the saviour and my word is to watch I say watch watch for the hour cometh that ye see not for I say unto all come a gain but not as I have but I shall come to do the will of my Father.

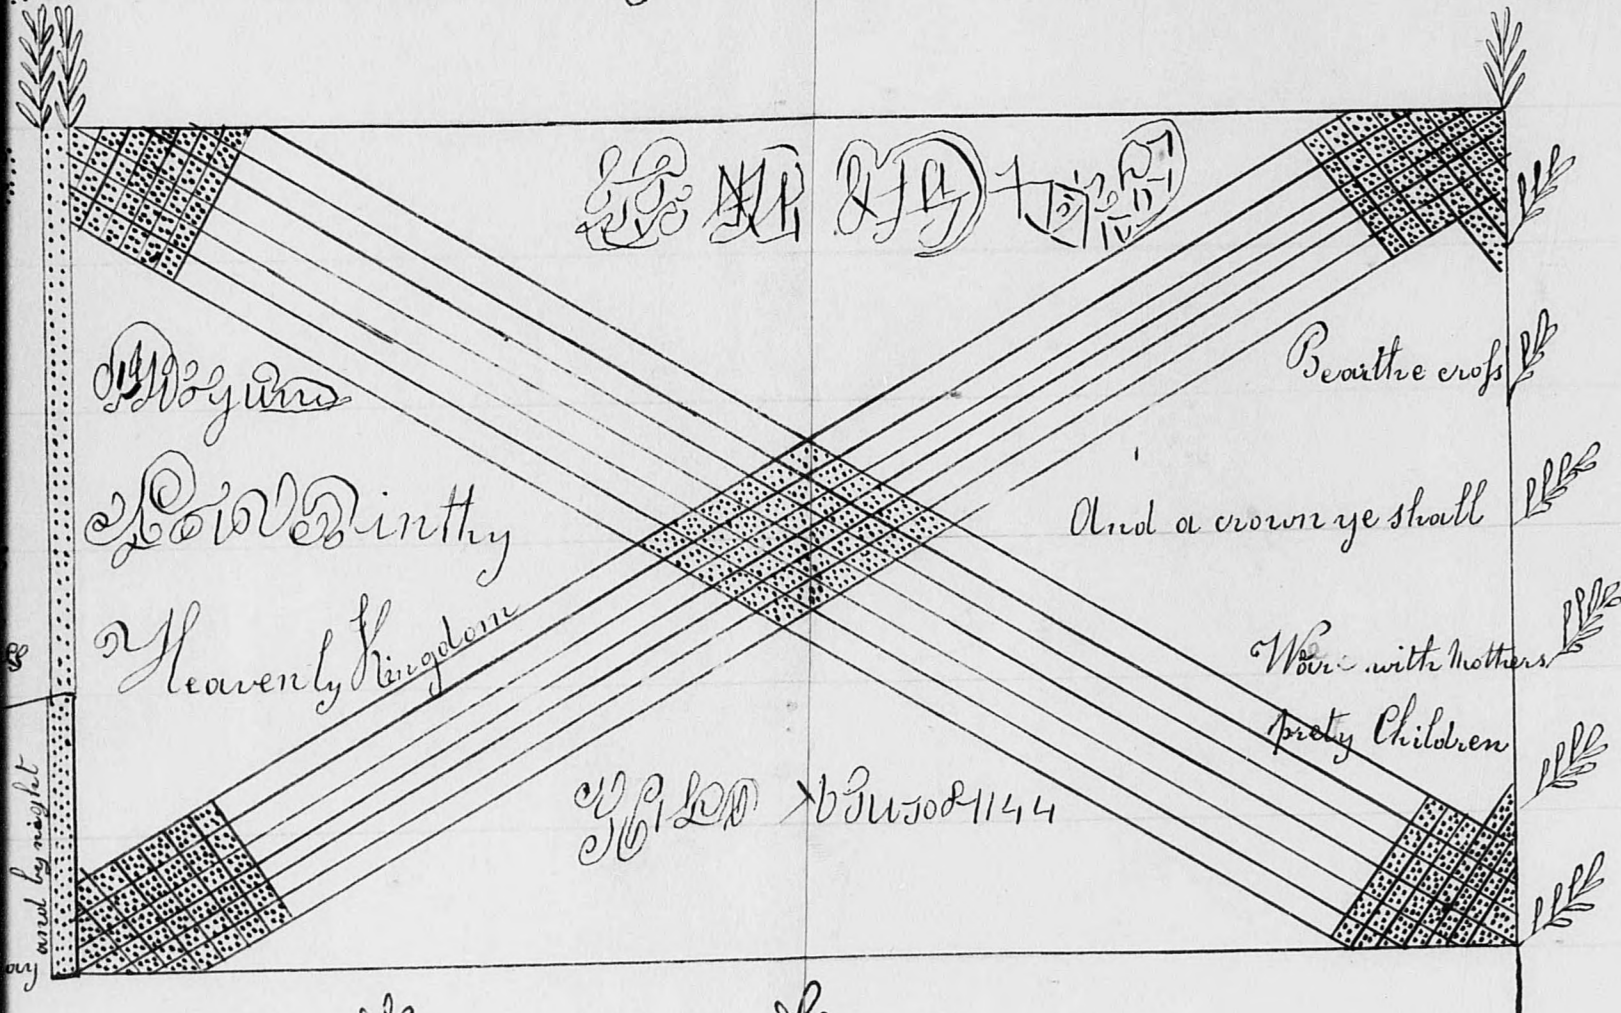

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a religious or historical document, spanning the top of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the narrative or prayer from the top section.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, mentioning 'the will of my Father' and 'some will live to see it'.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, mentioning 'each one another' and 'the Blessing of your Mother'.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the text from the previous section.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the text from the previous section.

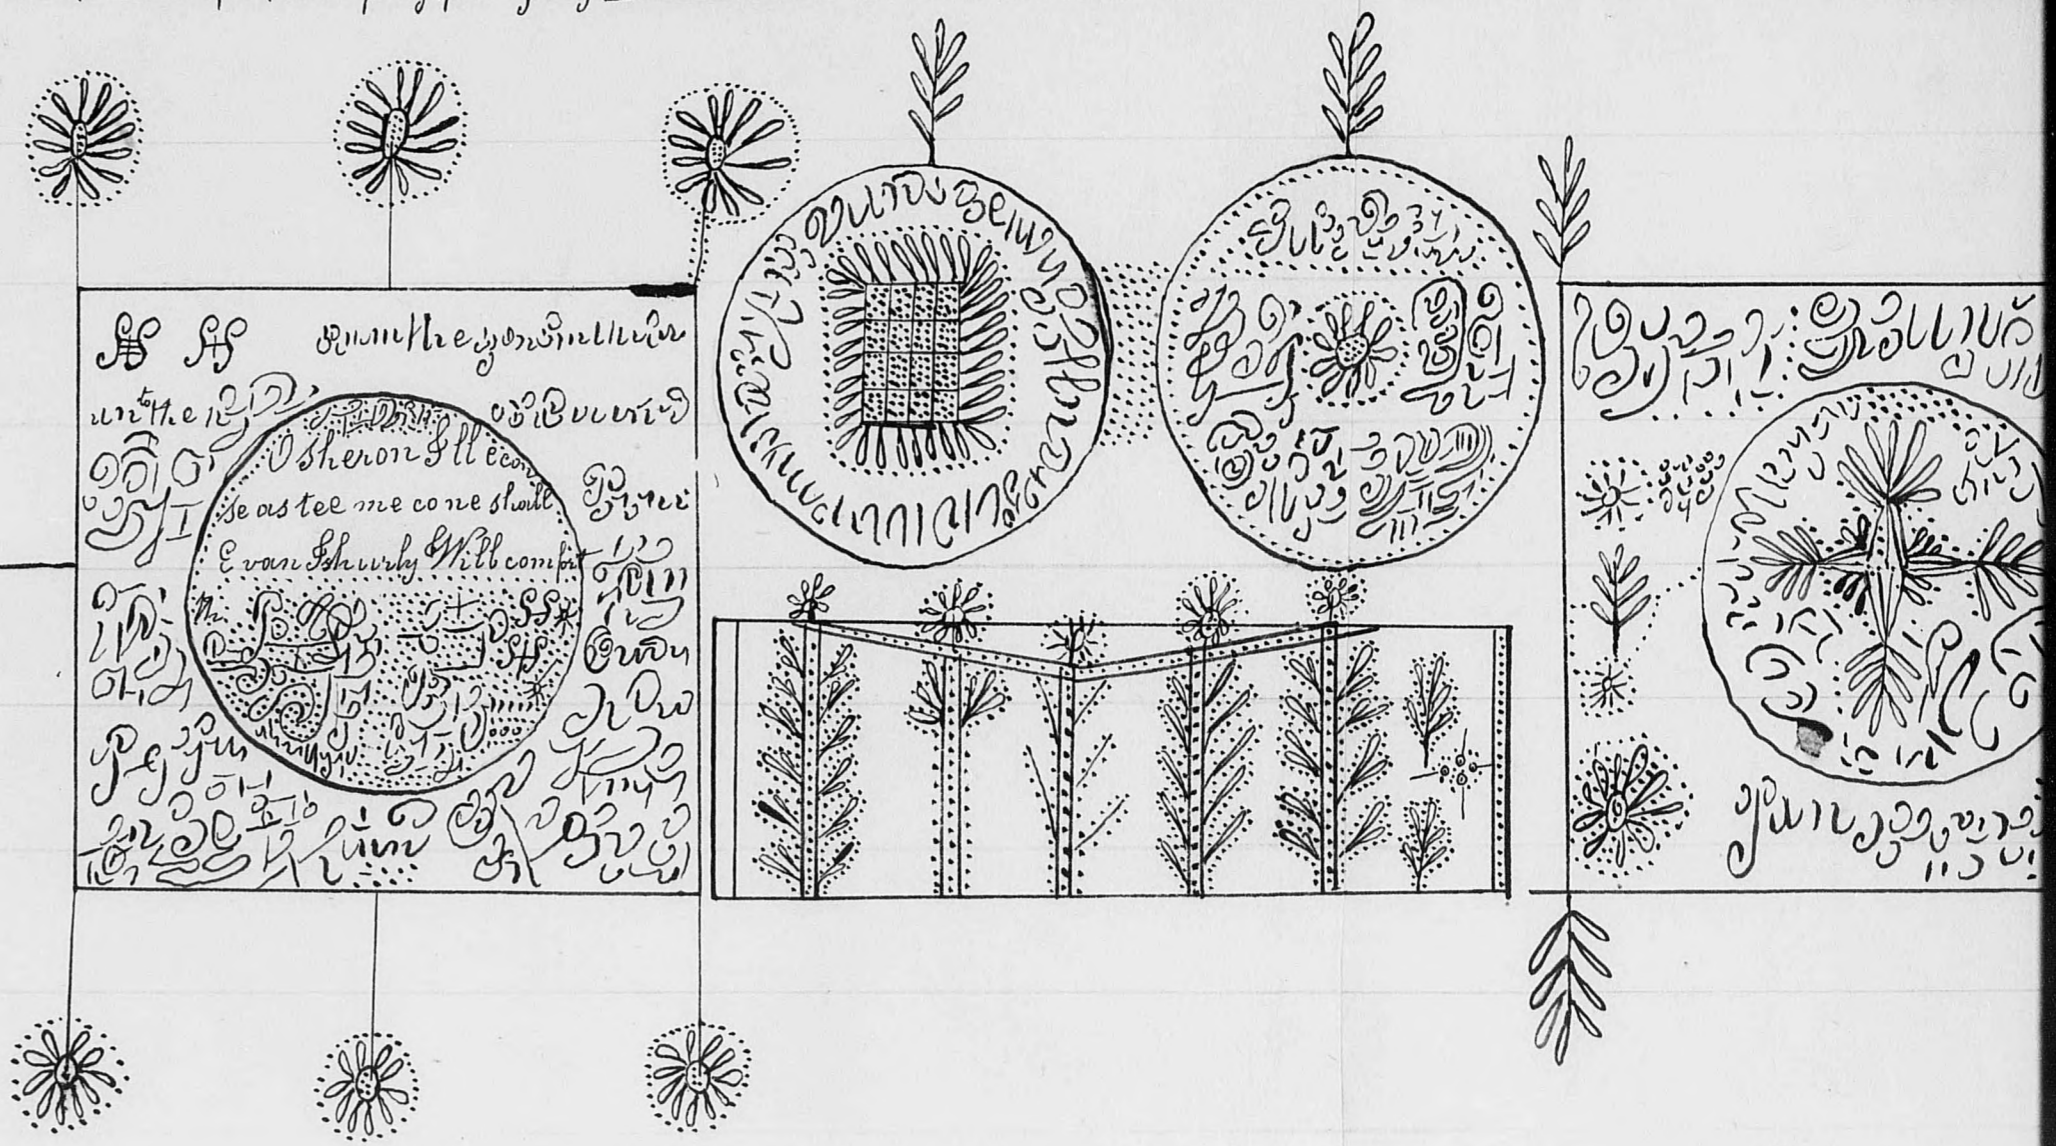

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the text from the previous section.

The words of the saviour and my word is to watch I say watch watch for the hour cometh that ye see not for I say unto all come again but not as I have but I shall come to do the will of my Father.

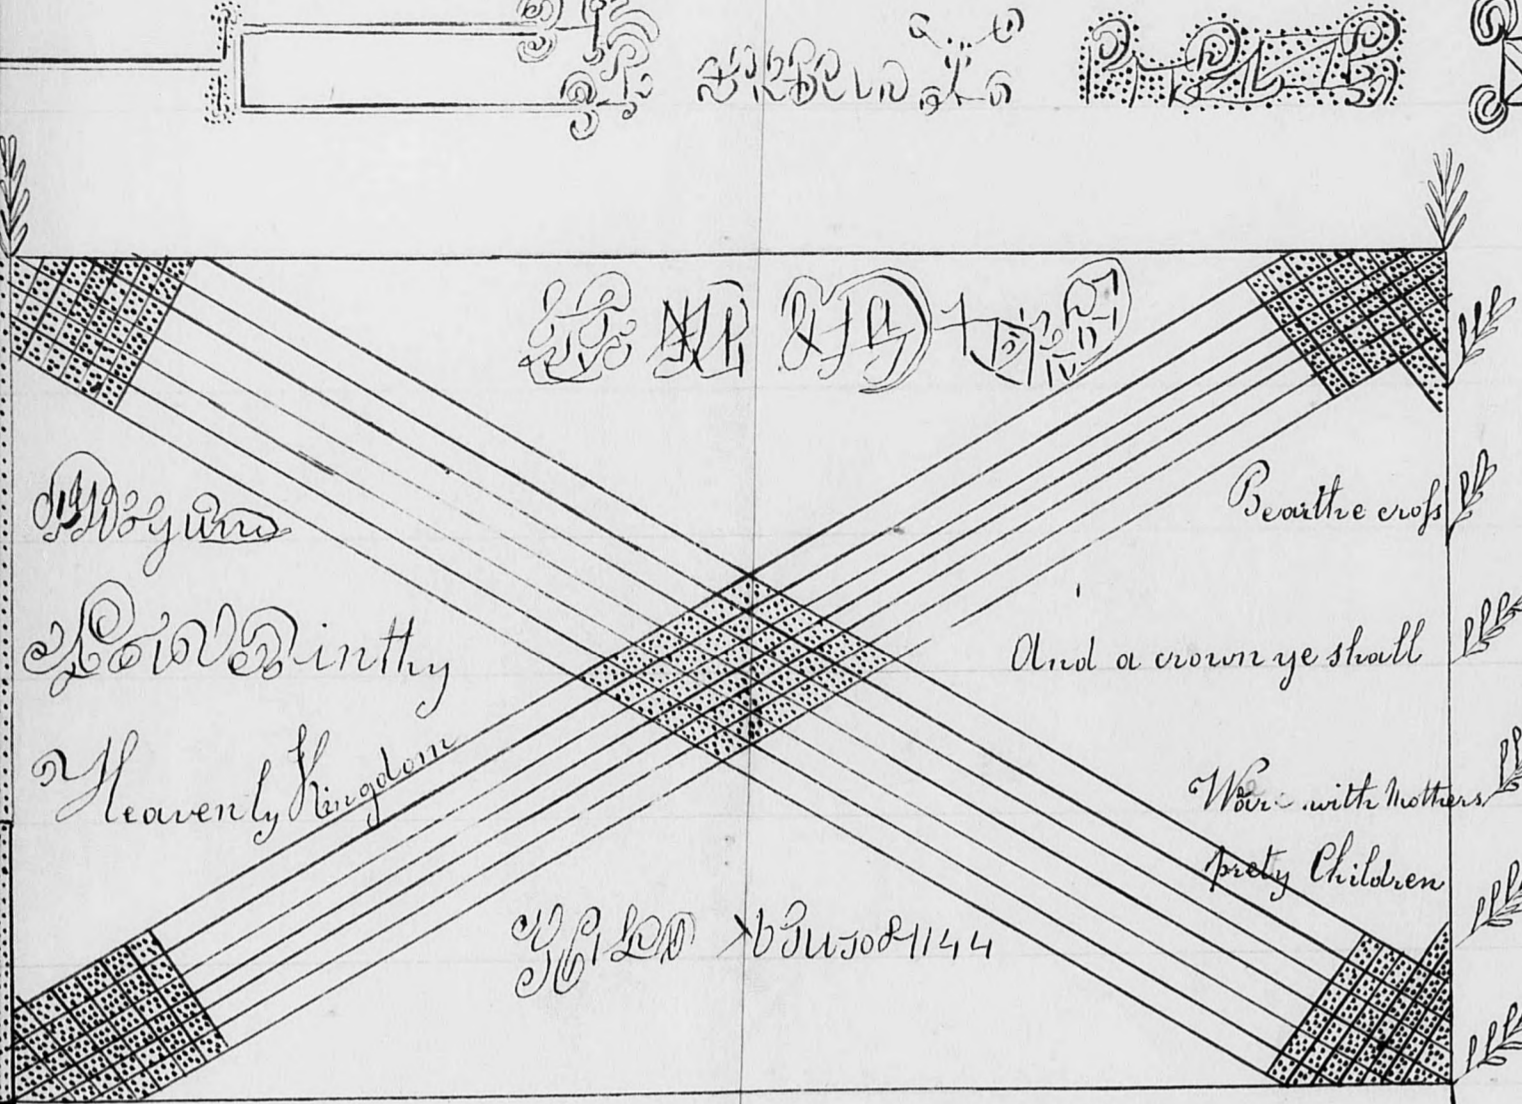

My little ones gather together whilst ye have Mothers first Born Children on Earth and from them ye must gather charity meekness and love to wards each other then you will all gain the Blessing again but not as I have but I shall come to do the will of my Father. And some will live to see it and some will not; And some will faint by the way and some will not and and love to words: each ... mother then you will all gain the Blessing of your Mother...

... never die
... the though should live on.

... never die

... never die

CATNO 813

Tamil text in a circular arrangement, likely a prayer or a specific liturgical formula. The text is written in a highly decorative and stylized script, with many characters being larger and more ornate than others. The text is arranged in concentric circles, with some lines following the curve of the circles and others being straight.

English text within a circular frame, containing a religious passage. The text is written in a cursive, handwritten style.

Build eye on the rock then ye shall have Eternal life

