Emma J. Neale, Trustee,

United Society of Shakers

Mount Lebanon, N.Y.

Mr Henry Clough practically refuses to acknowledge any indebtedness to me for my services as his attorney in the matters in difference between your society and himself, which were recently adjusted at Lawyer Mc Clellans office.

Mr Mc Clellan is away on an extended vacation so I have been unable to see him.

I claim and so notify you, that I claim an attorney's lien on the moneys to be paid by your society to Mr Clough, Please therefore do not make any further payments to Mr Clough until Mr McClellan returns, as we can then all meet and have the matter settled at his office and Mr Clough can be firmly bound not to make trouble.

I will appreciate your kind and just attention to the matter

Very respectfully yours,

William B. Daley

LAW OFFICE OF

Miss Emma J. Neale,

Mt. Lebanon, N.Y.

Dear Miss Emma:

Yours received. Henry Clough was at the office on Monday, said he had expected to be out of the village that day but was not able to. He said he did not come for the money but stopped in to explain about getting away, - he had been to see his lawyer, with whom he is having a little trouble over his bill.

His wife was not with him, and he said it would be rather inconvenient for her to come down, but she would if it was necessary. I gave him the release and resignation for them both to sign and acknowledge before a Notary.

I think his asking for delay is to give him a chance to take up his troubles with his attorney with Mr. Winters perhaps. He may also send the release on to him for his approval, as he has had four days now to execute it and return.

Will not turn over the money to him until the release and resignation are signed.

Very truly,
