Dear Madam:

We have authority from our Company to purchase the old Vacuum Pan from you, at a price of $50.00, and have made arrangements to have a truck at your place Saturday morning, September 12th, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of taking this pan away.

The writer plans to be at your office and will pay for the pan at that time.

We trust these arrangements will be satisfactory to you.

Very truly yours,
