

Wordson a Card Sent from Holy Mother Wisdom, to Amy Reed.
July 10th 1872. Copied August 15th 1872.

Arise arise up quickly my innocent babe, saith Holy Eternal Wisdom, and come thou unto me, and receive the holy blessing which I have for thee. Truly thou art one who has found favor in my sight. Yea, thy honesty, sincerity and obedience hath pleased me well; and because of this, I will bless thee with a rich and heavenly blessing. Blessed are thy hands for they are clean, and blessed thy heart for it is pure. Blessed are thy feet, for they walk in straight paths, and blessed thy paths, for they lead to my Holy Kingdom. Blessed is thy tongue, for it hath praised my name, and, blessed thy praises, for they are holy. In all things, my beloved, thou shalt forever be blessed, if thou wilt walk in the low path of self-denial and obedience, in which thou art now traveling, fearing the Lord, and working righteousness. For to whatsoever thou shalt put thy hands, the same shall be prospered and blessed. And when thou hast finished thy work on the earth, I will send my holy Angels to take thee home, and
