

and they shall waft thy spirit upon their holy wings unto the Heavens of Heavens, where thou shalt dwell, and enjoy the blessed reward of thy labors. I will then crown thee with my never-ending brightness and glory, and clothe thee in fine raiment of artful needle-work, shining with many beautiful and elegant colours. I will give unto thee the bread of everlasting life, and holy water from my wells of salvation. Thy paths shall be paved with onyx and beryl stone, and I will adorn the same, with precious jewels, gems and diamonds of my heavenly and sweet love. I will also place on thee a beautiful large Pearl, and will with my own finger write thereon these words.

{ A faithful servant unto my name, saith Holy Eternal Wisdom, }
 { One in whom I am well pleased, saith the Holy One of Israel. }
 { Crowned to be Princess unto my Name, In the beautiful Temple of Jerusalem }

And there thou shalt dwell, my beloved, joining thy praises with the Angels in Heaven, and thy dances with the redeemed, praising thy God upon instruments of music for the salvation thou hast found, thro' a never-ending eternity. Yea, thy joy, comfort, happiness and pleasure shall be eternal.

Saith thy Holy Holy Mother.
