

O yea, yea Amy my dear little sister, my good sister & Mother's good child, Do O do, Accept my sweetest peace my love & blessing too Yea & my thankfulness most freely for your faithfulness so true - thro' all your scenes of sorrow

My spirit has been near - And still I'll be your comfort - So with courage persevere.
Put your trust in that God that you truly serve & love
Then share his richest blessings from his fountains above His arm of strength & power will bear you safely thro'
Each trying scene you're passing, while travelling here below.

With these promises of Heavenly truth I give you the love of many justified spirits all wishing you to bear patiently & cheerfully whatever may be allotted you, for the honest integrity & true sincerity of your soul is known & realized by all your blessed parents in Heaven, Yea Amy, your Mother has heard your cries has seen your tears, & feels your woes -

But in her cheerful love bids you a loving farewell for this time, with us both your true friends & companions in tribulation
