Dedications.

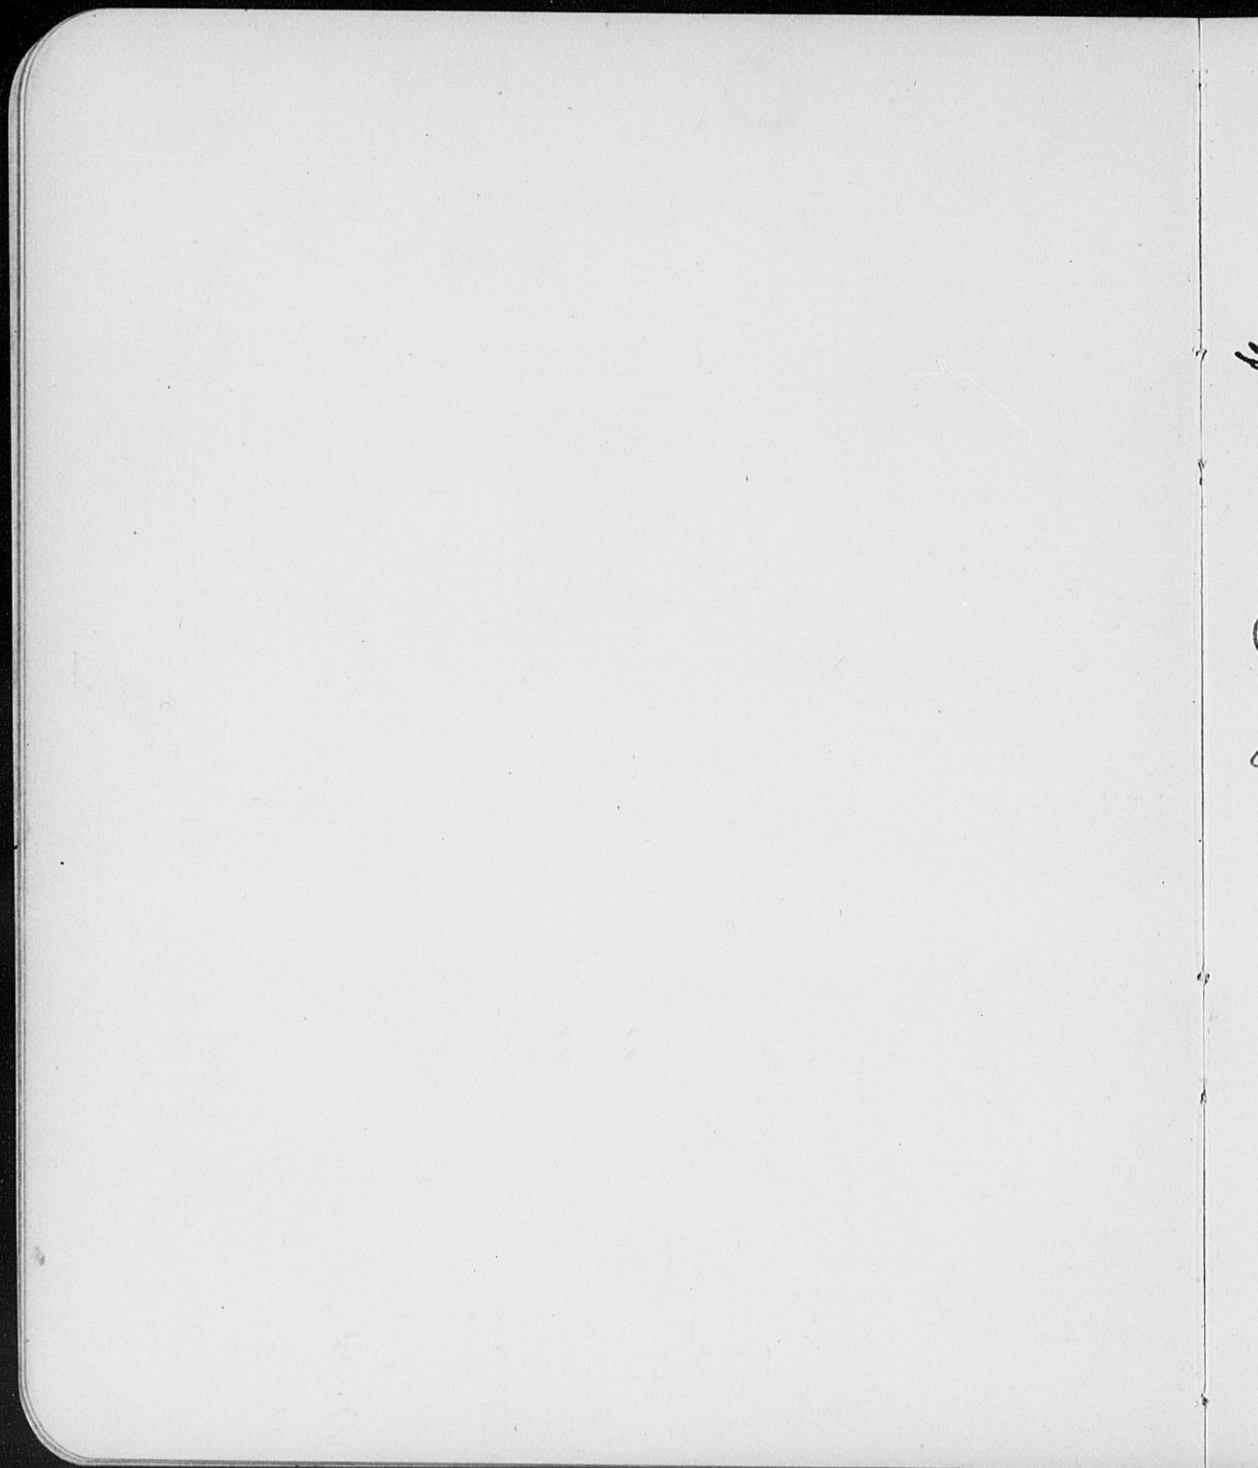

In future years, when Time in hurried flight, has thrown the dimness of twilight over the past, and memory but faintly sketches its features, each name and fond memento of dearest friends, shall renew again the friendships and pleasures of bygone years.

Go! then, fair pages, gather treasures from the good and true, and may the owner's cares and sorrows, be relieved by the whispers of sympathy and affection found herein; and when life's pilgrimage is over, may the friendships here pledged, be renewed above.

Your Friend and Sister.

Go a true Overcomer in life's battle,
 Rich in experience & the testing born of a wise choice & enduring purpose in obedience to Mother Anns Gospel. Duty's Call.

"O Zion! withhold not thy blessing,
 The true Testimony is thine,
 And unto all kindreds & nations,
 Go publish thy Order Divine.

@ Pour out thy life like a river,
 Till nolej shall cover the land, D. A. D.
 And thou shalt by sacrifice surely
 In greater & greater strength stand"

"Where so e'er thy lot command,
 Brother, Sister, Pilgrim,
 God is ever near at hand
 A shield from every danger.
 Rocks of granite, Gates of brass,
 Alps to heaven soaring,
 Melt to let the wishes pass,
 @ the soul imploring."

My Loving Sister Dorothy:

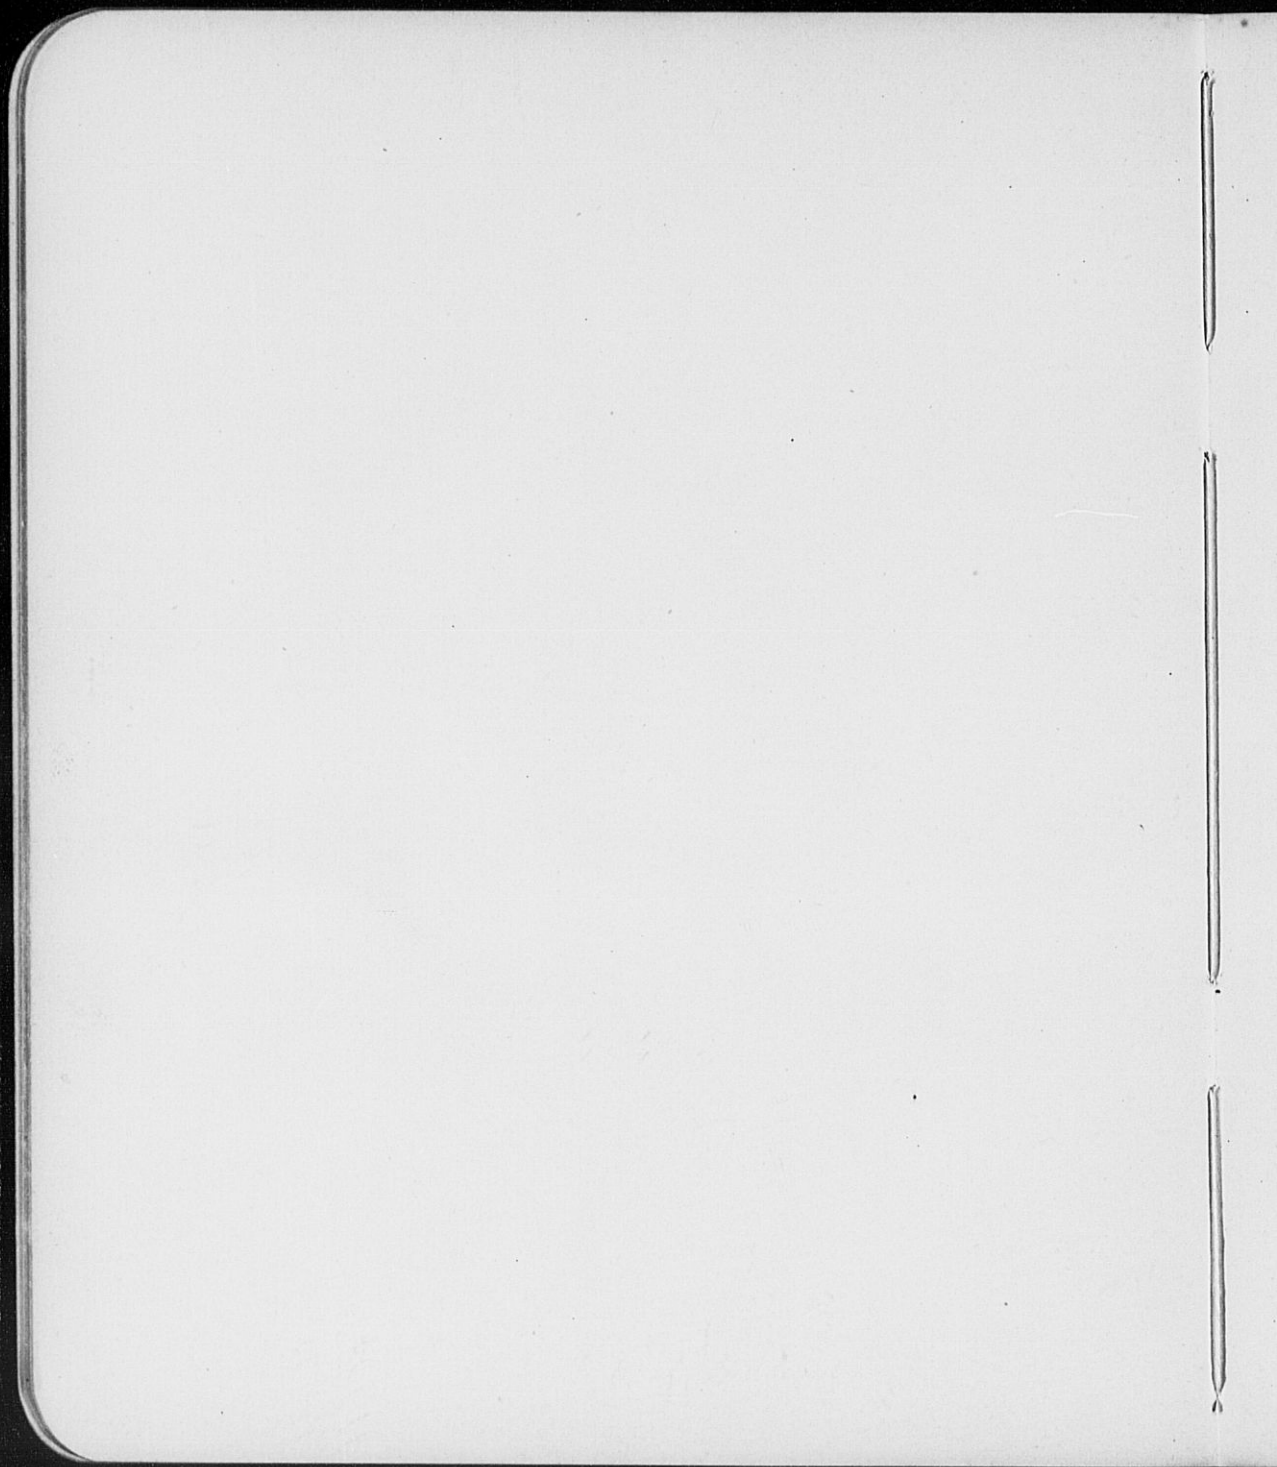

"Happy they who neither wealth nor fashion
Nor the march of modern progress
Can drive exile from the hearth
Of consecrated Home.

We may build more splendid habitations
Fill our rooms with paintings and with sculptures
But we cannot buy with gold.

The Old Associations."

With best wishes
Yours ever loving
At Lebanon Sister and friend

As a light-house 'mid the Ocean's wave,
 And a pilot at the mid-night hour,
 As calm when love alone can save,
 As strength against temptations power,
 Such are the virtues of a friend,
 Who long have proved affections worth,
 Let riches from her heights descend,
 For Love's the truest wealth of earth.

Come one, come all: this rock shall fly
 From its firm base as soon as I.
 Can heavenly minds, ^{such} resentment show,
 Or exercise their spite in human woe?

The towering clouds
 Descend in glad some Identity on the world.

Now, Dorie, remember this fact,

"Prosperous people make a happy people;
a happy people make a contented people;
a contented people make a loyal people.
a loyal people make a strong government"

Shall we not as a Community, have a strong government based on the affections of our Brothers and Sisters ??????????????????????

"God's angels drop, like grains of gold,
 Our duties 'midst life's shining sands,
 And from them, one by one, we mold
 Our own bright crown with patient hands.
 From dust and dross we gather them;
 We toil and stoop for love's sweet sake,
 To find each worthy act a gem
 In glory's kingly diadem,
 Which we may daily richer make!"

the light of phosphorus seen

Dear Dorothy:

Bright be the skies above thee,
 And green the earth below,
 Mayst thou have friends to love thee
 And sorrow never know"

 Thou earnest not to thy ^{place} by accident -
 It is the very place God meant for thee.
 Let not the time thou owest to God be spent
 In idly dreaming how thou mightest be,
 In what concerns thy spiritual life, more free
 From inward hindrance or impediment!"

To, Sister, Dorothy, Wright,

Wear not in well doing,
 Never falter in the right,
 But be ever upward moving
 Into clearer, purer, light;
 Where amid the glowing brightness
 Of angelic virtues won,
 May gain a perfect likeness
 Unto Christ, The Holy One.

Lovingly

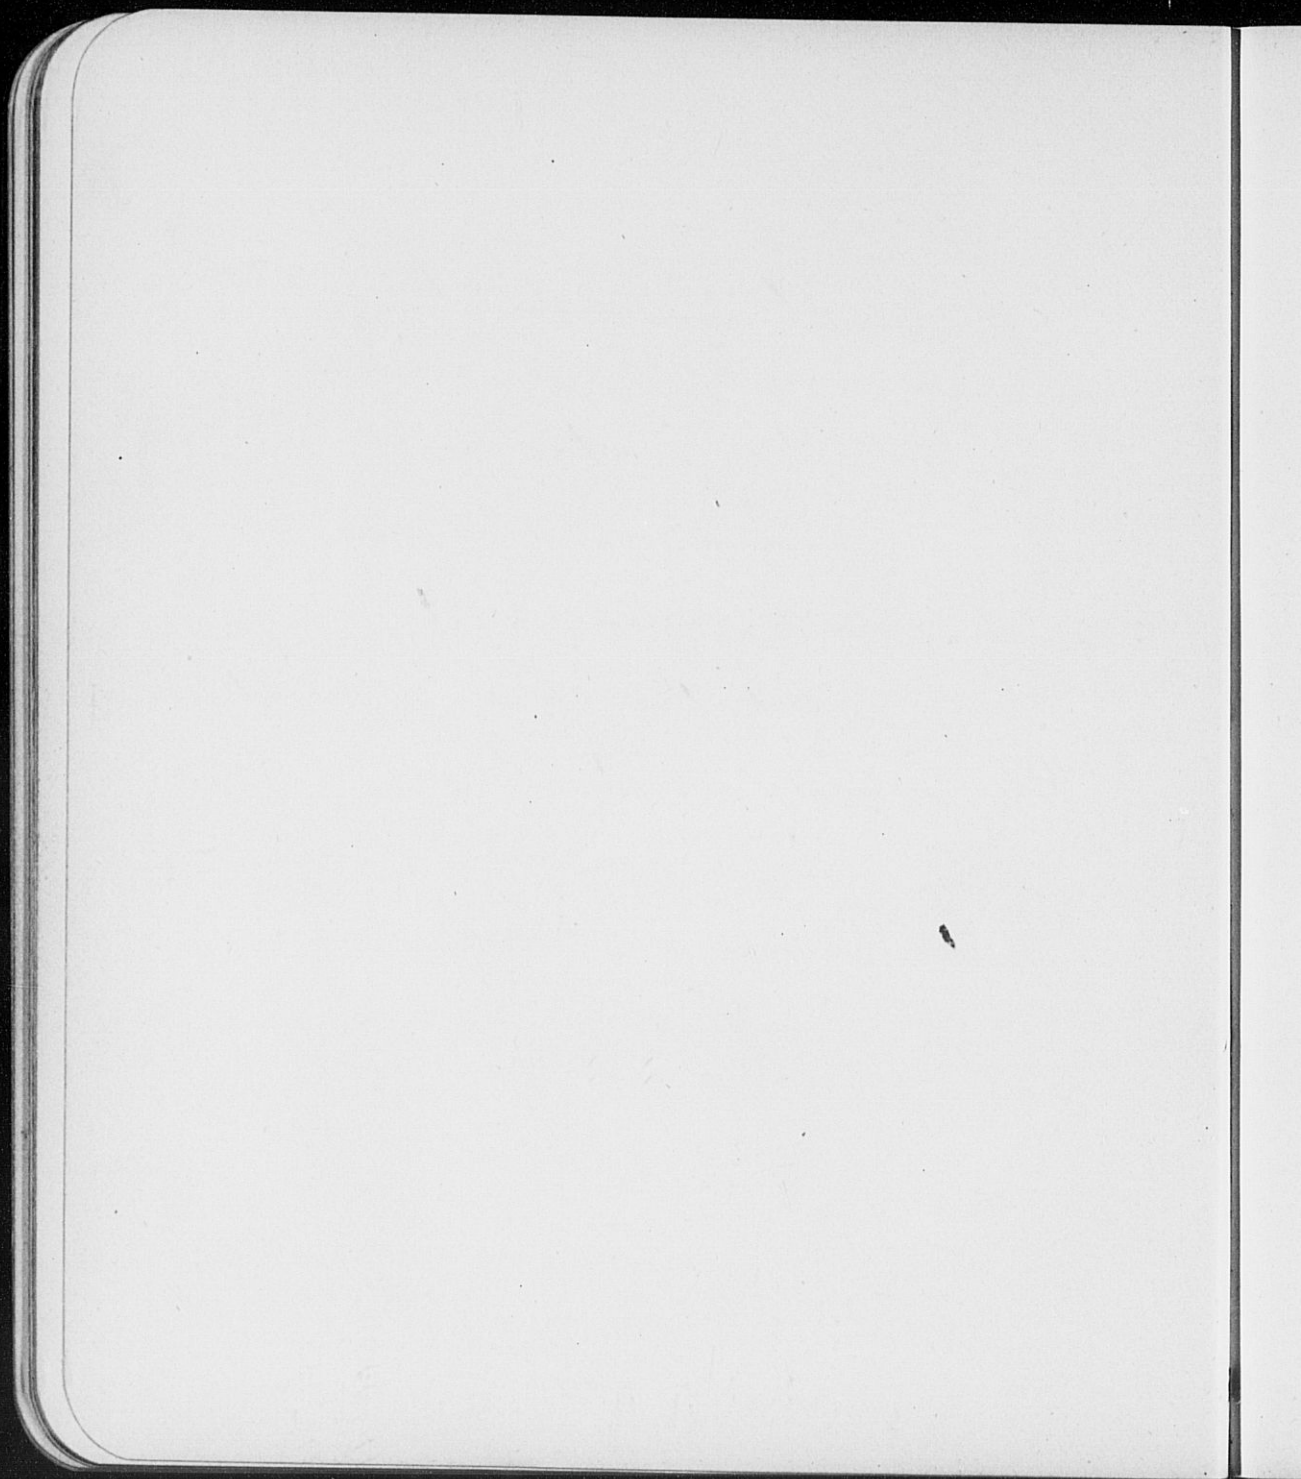

Your Sister

"Strong as the ship that braves the blast,
Upon a stormy sea,
Deep as the oceans rippling tides,
So shall our friendship be."
