

A Welcome to Borvillian

A Welcome to Corilliam. (Two Sisters.) Shaker Song.

1 Unison. We're here at God's command, To do His sovereign will;

2 Sisters. We're ban-ded sis-ters true! God placed us here to care

3 Brothers. We're brot-hers banded too! We ev-er read-y dare

All together in harmony. One love, one hope, one bond! No shame need we de-lore!

5 Joyfully. We sing this welcome song To sis-ters al-ways dear;

6 Softly. Years add-ed sweetness claim One sis-ter, (to her own)

7 Kindly. A-noth-er kindly heart, Beats for us now we know,

8 Chorus. We sing our welcome song To sis-ters al-ways dear;

Verse 1

To the glory of God
in this order.

Verse 2

A band of sisters sing.

Verse 3

A band of brothers
sing.

Verse 4

Our love is pure and undefiled.

A Welcome To Caritians. continued.

January 21, 1915.

W.H.

As a rock we take our stand, It's pur- pose to ful- fill.
 For souls made free from sin; and you Our brot- hers with us share.
 All things to shield our sisters through all dan- gers ev- ry- where God shares all with this hap- py throng, Both now and ev- er more.

Come sis- ters! you to us be- long! Your com- ing gives us cheer.
 She's dearer still for this <sup>ff</sup> pro- claim (Sister) bor- rin- a welcome home.
 To give us love, 'tis Lil- ians part, Deep in our hearts to grow.
 Come sis- ters, you to us be- long! We love to have you near.

Verse 5

Verse 6

Verse 7

Verse 8

Welcome dear sisters.

Years add but sweetness.

Another kindly heart.

Chorus.