

The image shows the spine of a book, oriented vertically. The spine is dark, possibly black or dark brown, with a textured surface that appears to be leather or a similar material. There are several horizontal lines or bands embossed or stitched into the spine, creating a segmented appearance. In the center of the spine, the words "COVENANT" and "BOOK" are embossed in a bold, serif, all-caps font. The text is arranged in two lines, with "COVENANT" on top and "BOOK" below it. The lighting is somewhat uneven, with brighter areas at the top and bottom of the spine, and a darker area in the middle where the text is located. The background is a plain, light color, likely white or a very light gray.

COVENANT
BOOK

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

..... and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the..... day of..... A. D. 18.....

.....
Attest:.....

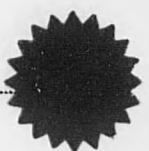

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Co. N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 18 day of March A. D. 18 89

Nelson Nitroels

Attest: Daniel Crooman Frederic Sizer

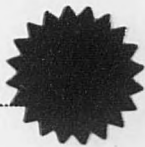

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at West Lebanon,
Columbia County, N. Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 14 day of November A. D. 1884

N. P. Clough

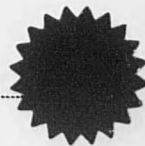

Attest: Oren V. Perkins
Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia County N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 14th day of November A. D. 18 84

John Beatty

Attest: Orrin W. Harkins
Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia County N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 17 day of November A. D. 18 84

Theodore P. Phoe

Attest: Frederic Sizer

Geo. H. Gaud

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co. N. Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

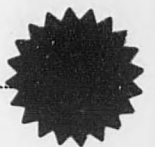

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 17th day of November A. D. 1884

Leopold Hohman

Attest: Frederic Sizer

Geo. H. Gano

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

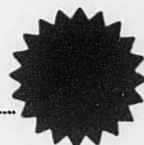

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 17 day of November A. D. 1884

Annie W. Lane

Attest: Milda Reed

Helen A. Stone.

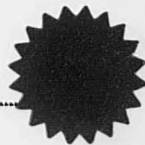

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co. N. Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 17th day of November A. D. 1884

Polly Langford

Attest: Reuben S. Stone

Matilda Reed

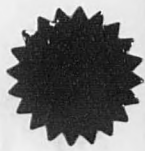

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Millard, Vermont

Columbia County, N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 10 day of November A. D. 1874

Jennie A. Stone

Attest: Heben A. Stone

Matilda Reed

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at St Lebanon
Columbia Co N.Y.

and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 24 day of Nov A. D. 1884

Geo. M. Wickersham

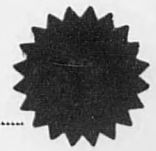

Attest: Frederic Sizer
George M Wickersham

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia, N. C. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 27th day of November A. D. 1844

James C. Cough

Attest: Matilda Reed

Anna W. Grays

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 19th day of July A. D. 1887.

Cassie G. Dolbey

Attest: Heleen A. Stone

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at New Lebanon
Columbia Co. N. Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 10 day of November A. D. 1887

Charles Carter

Attest: Salmon H. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at W. Lebanon, County of Columbia State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 14 day of May A. D. 1888

John Martin Jones

Attest: Calvin L. Reed Frederic Dizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at W. Schanon
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 25 day of June A. D. 1888

Robert Peterson

Attest: Calvin G. Reed Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mr. Swanon
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 8 day of August A. D. 1888

Frederick Fisher Wittington

Attest: Calvin G. Reed Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia County State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

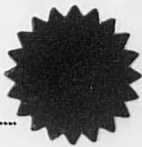

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 15 day of December A. D. 1888

Irving Gourley

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon,
Columbia Co., State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

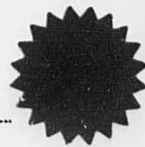

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 11 day of April A. D. 1889,

Borden G. Wilton

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Frederic Sizer

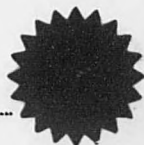

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co., State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 27th day of July A. D. 1889

Alex. Morrison

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co., State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7 day of Dec A. D. 1889

Geo H Gardiner

Attest: Leahim G. Reed

Frederic Dizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co. State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 5th day of January A. D. 1890

Louisa Delia Gardner

Attest: Heleen A. Stone, Amelia J. Calver.

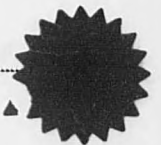

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co., State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 5th day of January A. D. 1890.

Helen A. Stone

Attest: Helen A. Stone Amelia J. Calver.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia Co., State of New York, and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 23 day of March A. D. 1874

Caroline Matilda Stone

Attest: Helen A. Stone.

Amelia J. Calver.

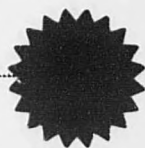

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at New Lebanon
Columbia Co. State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 4 day of June A. D. 1891

James Little

Attest: James Little
Calvin S. Reed
Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at New Lebanon
Columbia County, State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

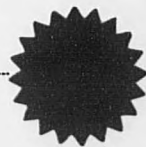

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 16 day of September A. D. 1894.

Thomas Wells

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at W. Seabron, Columbia
County, and State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 17 day of December A. D. 1894.

Levi J. Jouny

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Fredrick Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County, State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 9th day of June A. D. 1895

George W. Durcan

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County, State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

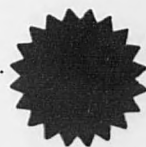

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 9th day of June A. D. 1893

Gustav Werner.

Attest: Calvin G. Reed.

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia County, State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 9th day of June A. D. 1893.

Joseph P. Quinn

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County, State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

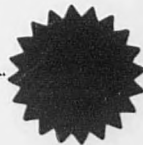

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 13th day of November A. D. 1893.

Stephen P. Hines.

Attest: Calvin C. Reed

Frederic Sizer

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County, State of New York, and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 2nd day of April A. D. 1874.

Alice Cary Wade

Attest:

Dorothy Wright
Amelia J. Calver

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County, State of New York, and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 3rd day of April A. D. 1894.

Minnie M. Smith

Attest: Dorothy Wright
Amelia J. Calver.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co., State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 19 day of March A. D. 18 98

John F. Berridge

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Timothy D. Rayson

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 19 day of March A. D. 1898

Went away Sept. 17 1903 Charles Romgren

Attest: Calvin G. Reed

Timothy D. Rayson

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co. New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7th day of August A. D. 1878.

Sarah Kimbier

Attest: Dorothy Wright
Amelia J. Calver.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mr. Sebastian
Columbia Co. New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7 day of August A. D. 1898

Daisy Wells

Attest: Dorothy Wright

Amelia J. Calver

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
 Columbiana Co. New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7 day of August A. D. 18 98

 Helen Seiver

Attest: Dorothy Wright
 Amelia J. Calver

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co. New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7 day of August, A. D. 1898,

Mary M. Seward

Attest: Dorothy Wright
Amelia J. Calver.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mr. Schuman
Columbia Co. New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 7 day of November A. D. 1890

Adelaide Willoughby

Attest:

Dorothy Wright

Amelia J. Calver.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon.
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 9th day of November, A. D. 1899

Josephine M. Thompson

Attest:

Dorothy Wright

Amelia J. Calver

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon N.Y.
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof; that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 25th day of April A. D. 1901
18

Attest:

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon N.Y.
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 25th day of April 1901 A. D. ~~18~~

Attest:

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co. and State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 20th day of May, A. D. 1911

Henry Schmid

Attest: Timothy D. Rayson
A. G. Hollister.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co. and State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 29th day of May A. D. 1805

Charlotte W. Bordon

Attest: Timothy D. Rayson
Curice Cantrell

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt Lebanon
Columbia Co. & State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 13th day of June A. D. 1905

Charlotte W. Gordon

Attest: Timothy D. Rayson

Amelia J. Culver.

Robert Valentine

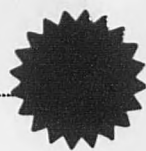

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon, N. Y.
Columbia County, State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 1st day of February A. D. 1909

Henry P. Dougherty

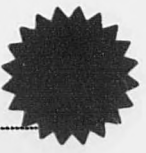

Attest: Timothy D. Rayson
Emma J. Neale Robert Valentine

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon,
Columbia County 3rd State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 1st day of February A. D. 1829

Julia M. Blough

Attest: Timothy D. Rayson
Emma J. Neale

Robert Valentine

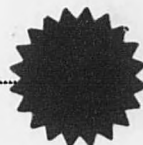

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co. and State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the day of May 20th A. D. 1899.

Harriet Bullard

Minnie Flynn

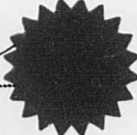

Attest: Ann M. Graves

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Met. Johnson
Columbia Co. State of New York and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 14 day of June A. D. 1899

George W. Drew

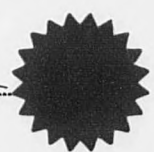

Attest: Alonzo G. Hollister
Timothy D. Rayson

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mt. Lebanon
Columbia Co. State of New York. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 25 day of February A. D. 1911

Florence Bourn

Attest: M. Catherine Allen

Ann Maria Graves

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 13th day of Jan A. D. 1873

..... Ella Paull

Attest: Amelia J. Calver

M. Catherine Allen

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 6 day of January A. D. 1895

Frank P. Seale

Attest: Miriam Offord.
M. Catherine Allen

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 14th day of January A. D. 1815

Adeline Patterson

Attest: Miriam Offord.
Angelina Brown.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 16th day of January A. D. 1875

Anna Louise Spillar

Attest: Miriam Offord.
Angelina Brown.

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

..... and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 12 day of May A. D. 1915 -

John H Rogers

Attest: Amelia J. Calver

M. Catherine Allen

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon New York

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 8th day of June A. D. 1920

Frederick A. Tyler

Attest: Hester Shepherd
Emma J. Pease

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at

.....and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 4/24 day of Helena Lemke A. D. ~~18~~ 1922

Attest:

Whereas, I, the undersigned, have this day attached myself as probationary member to the United Society of Believers at Mount Lebanon
Columbia Co. N.Y. and it being my desire to live with said Society according to the known faith and customs thereof, that I may receive the benefits arising from the observance of the rules, regulations, moral, and religious instructions of the same.

Therefore, agreeably to the custom of said Society, I hereby covenant, promise and agree, that I will never prefer any account, claim, nor demand against the said Society, or any member or members thereof, for the USE of any money or property brought into said Society, nor for any labor or service which I may perform or render while residing in the same, over and above what I may receive in food, clothing, washing, and other necessary support: And, whereas, it is further mutually understood and agreed that I shall be free to withdraw from said Society whenever I am dissatisfied therewith, and that after sufficient and timely notice shall have been given by me I shall receive all the money and other property which I brought into said Society, or their value at the time it was brought in. Therefore I further agree and promise that so long as I am permitted to enjoy the benefits and privileges of said Society I will faithfully conform to the rules thereof, and will not find fault with the said rules, requirements, regulations, worship nor teachings, by acting or speaking against the same so as to create dissatisfaction, disunion, or inharmony in the family; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent a free and respectful inquiry of the leading authority into the reasons of said rules and regulations; and if I shall fail to comply with this agreement such failure shall be deemed sufficient cause for loss of membership with said Society, and upon being desired so to do by the leading authority of the family in which I reside, will peaceably withdraw from the same.

Witness my hand the 27 day of April A. D. 1892

Helena Lemble

Attest: Emma J. Treale
Sarah Binger