The image shows the front cover of an antique book. The cover is decorated with a dark, intricate marbled paper pattern, likely a 'stone' or 'shell' marbling style, featuring large, irregular, dark shapes separated by lighter, vein-like lines. The spine of the book is visible on the left side, showing a textured, possibly leather or cloth, binding. In the upper right corner, there is a small, rectangular, white paper label with a double-line border. The label contains the text 'School Record' on the first line and '1850-1888' on the second line, both in a simple, black, sans-serif font.
